CLASSIC CHIC

BASLER

Founded in Berlin, Basler has been creating beautiful clothes for style-conscious women since 1936. The Basler collection bears the unmistakable design signature of Creative Director Brian Rennie; with a consistently feminine aesthetic his designs are created to flatter.

Basler has been worn by celebrities including Jennifer Lopez, Carmen Electra, Katherine Jenkins, Brooke Shields and Sylvie van der Vaart, and they can often be seen on the red carpet wearing one of Brian's stunning gowns.

Clients visiting the recently refurbished Basler Store in Knightsbridge, 55 Brompton Road will enjoy a personal styling experience. The brand offers a wide selection of colours, silhouettes, textures and beautiful prints. From chic casual wear to glamorous evening wear, smart tailoring to couture gowns, Basler dresses a woman for any occasion.

THE SLAUGHTERS INN – A COUNTRY INN SET IN THE HEART OF THE COTSWOLDS

Set in the heart of one of the most picturesque Cotswold villages, alongside the River Eye in Lower Slaughter, The Slaughters Inn offers the authentic charm of a traditional village inn, boasting charming countryside views, stone flagged floors, beamed ceilings and roaring log fires.

The Inn's twenty-four bedrooms and six charming cottages are all individually designed, seamlessly blending the traditional features of the house with contemporary design elements. The chic cottages nestled in the courtyard allow for a more secluded stay with all the luxuries of the hotel's offerings on the doorstep. Food at the inn is simply prepared using the finest Cotswold produce and complemented by a wide selection of local ales. Afternoon tea of home-made scones and delicious sandwiches can be enjoyed on the terrace with a glass of champagne or by the fire with a pot of tea. The Slaughters Inn is the perfect location for a country break where wellies, walks and unwinding are the order of the day. Double rooms start from £95 per room, per night including breakfast.

AFZAL KAHN: 'THE ROAD IS MY CATWALK!'

A. Kahn Design is not just a design house for wheels, interiors and cars – it is more than that. It is a tailor's shop where cars can be personalised. The business dates back more than 20 years to when a 17-year-old Afzal Kahn decided to turn his back on architecture to instead pursue his hobby in automotive design. Fast-forward to today, Kahn's reach is now global, adorning the streets of London, New York and Shanghai with a vast array of collections including the signature conversions for Range Rover (all models), Jeep, Audi, to name but a few, as well as the wheel boutique, range of interiors and Swiss made timepieces, which have become the mark of a man obsessed with the timeless designs, and panache.
